Opening Weekend! Beethoven's Symphony No. 9

SYMPHONY HALL

September 14, 2018 | 7:30 pm
September 15, 2018 | 7:30 pm
September 16, 2018 | 2:00 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

Tito Muñoz, conductor
The Phoenix Symphony Chorus

Beethoven: Symphony No. 9, Op. 125

Beethoven's big, bold, and joyous Ninth Symphony looms large over nearly two hundred and fifty years of composing. Be there as Tito Muñoz kicks off his fifth season as The Phoenix Symphony's Virginia G. Piper Music Director by performing the Ninth with its triumphant "Ode to Joy" alongside the Symphony, The Phoenix Symphony Chorus and world-class vocalists.

Mozart, Strauss and Tchaikovsky

SYMPHONY HALL

September 28, 2018 | 7:30 pm
September 29, 2018 | 7:30 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

David Danzmayr, conductor
Drew Petersen, piano

Tchaikovsky: Piano Concerto No. 1, Op. 23

Mozart: Symphony No. 36 "Linz" K. 425

Johann Strauss Jr: Kaiser-Walzer (Emperor Waltz), Op. 437

Mozart's legendary compositional facility was never more apparent than in his Thirty-Sixth Symphony, "Linz," titled after the city in which he composed it hastily for an unplanned concert. Despite his haste, Mozart proved his mastery with rich, large-scale movements and a dazzling finale written to be performed as fast as possible. Contrasting the delicate elegance of Mozart is Tchaikovsky's deeply romantic First Piano Concerto performed by Drew Peterson, praised for his commanding and poetic interpretations. This program ends with waltz-king Johann Strauss' Emperor Waltz.

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

Tito Muñoz, conductor
Rachel Barton Pine, violin

Gabriel Kahane: Nocturama

Paganini: Violin Concerto No. 1

Tchaikovsky: Symphony No. 4, Op. 36

Highlighted by Rachel Barton Pine's commanding performance of Paganini's First Violin Concerto, experience this powerhouse program by The Phoenix Symphony led by Maestro Muñoz. This program continues our dedication to young American composers by opening with Gabriel Kahane's Nocturama, and concludes with Tchaikovsky's Fourth Symphony; an urgent and supercharged reflection on his internal struggles.

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

Case Scaglione, conductor
Steven Moeckel, violin

Christopher Rouse: Prospero's Rooms

Britten: Violin Concerto, Op. 15

Elgar: Enigma Variations, Op. 36

Edward Elgar and Benjamin Britten stand tall as luminaries of English artistry. Elgar's Enigma Variations, with its fourteen movements dedicated to his friends, has thrilled audiences since its composition. Performed alongside Britten's edgy, yet lyrical Violin Concerto, played masterfully by concertmaster Steven Moeckel, this show will be sure to please!

November 18, 2018 | 2:00 pm

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

Tito Muñoz, conductor
Jeremy Denk, piano

Timo Andres: Everything Happens So Much

Mozart: Piano Concerto No.12, K. 414

Dvorak: Symphony No. 9 "From the New World" Op. 95

Antonin Dvořák came to the United States with a "simple" directive: Develop a distinctly American style of composition. Through his travels, attempts, and those he met along the way, Dvořák eventually developed his Ninth Symphony, "From the New World." The well-known theme of the second movement, now titled "Goin' Home," creates an intimate portrait of place and home unrivaled in orchestral repertoire. The program begins with Timo Andres' thought-provoking Everything Happens So Much and features Mozart's Twelfth Piano Concerto, full of lyricism and serenity, performed by acclaimed pianist Jeremy Denk.

Jennifer Koh, violin

Haydn: Symphony No. 69 "Laudon" Hob. 1/69

Esa-Pekka Salonen: Violin Concerto

Beethoven: Symphony No. 6 "Pastoral" Op. 68

Maestro Tito Muñoz celebrates the return of Jennifer Koh with Esa-Pekka Salonen's Violin Concerto: a virtuosic and flashy, aggressive and brutal, meditative and static masterwork. This program opens with Haydn's "Loudon" Symphony, his lush and finely crafted departure from his earlier works, and concludes with Beethoven's "Pastoral" Symphony, which stands as one of the most vivid depictions of nature and rustic life.

CONCERT REPERTOIRE

Tito Muñoz, conductor

Giora Schmidt, violin

Piazzolla: Cuatro Estaciones Porteñas (The Four Seasons of Buenos Aires)

Florence Price: Symphony No.1

Composers the world over have been driven to create orchestral music out of their familiar folk tunes. In his Four Seasons of Buenos Aires, Astor Piazzolla paints an adventurous impression of the Argentinian Capital through a four-tango composition. Florence Price, the first female African American composer to have a composition performed by a major orchestra, crafted her First Symphony with inspiration from spiritual melodies, folk song and church music. The Phoenix Symphony, featuring Valley favorite Giora Schmidt on violin, is honored to present these unique contributions of Piazzolla and Price.

Gershwin: Porgy and Bess: A Symphonic Picture arr. Bennet

The orchestra is an integral piece of both the operatic and balletic art forms, and The Phoenix Symphony offers unique insight into that brilliance through the juxtaposition of suites from George Gershwin and Sergei Prokofiev. Prokofiev's popular and intriguing suites to Romeo and Juliet fuse with Gershwin's Porgy and Bess Suite to create an evening of sweeping emotion and dramatic elegance featuring the towering Montagues and Capulets and the beloved classic "Summertime."

Mozart: Mass in C Major "Coronation" K. 317

Brahms: Symphony No.3, Op. 90

Mozart's Mass in C major, including the beautifully tender "Agnus Dei", is one of his most popular and enduring works. After becoming the preferred music of royalty, the exquisite piece acquired the nickname "Coronation Mass." The work is paired with Brahms' Third Symphony, a dramatic struggle between major and minor. Compared to Brahms' previous symphonies, his Third Symphony is considered the most artistically perfect. Don't miss this program featuring your Phoenix Symphony alongside The Phoenix Symphony Chorus.

NEW YEAR'S EVE
Gala

The New Year's Eve Gala

December 31, 2018 | 8:00 pm

The cherished Phoenix Symphony New Year's Eve Gala returned last year in spectacular fashion, dazzling guests with festivities and music during the best event of the season. Guests are once again invited to join The Phoenix Symphony for a magical night of music and dancing, including a cocktail reception, three-course dinner and a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to ring in the New Year dancing to the full Phoenix Symphony orchestra. A champagne toast and many other surprises will delight guests.

Individual tickets are $500 | Sponsorships begin at $7,000

 SAVOR THE SYMPHONY
WOMEN'S LUNCHEON EVENT

Savor the Symphony

February 8, 2019 | 11:00 am | Symphony Hall

The Phoenix Symphony's signature fundraiser and one of the most talked about society events returns in 2019 to delight guests with exclusive access to one of the Valley's preeminent chefs and the biggest names in Broadway. We are thrilled to announce that our 2019 event will feature Broadway and television star Matthew Morrison, best known for his roles in Finding Neverland and Glee.

Guests will eavesdrop on Matthew Morrison's rehearsal with The Phoenix Symphony as the modern day song and dance man takes guests on a dazzling musical tour of his 20-year Broadway career. This one-of-a-kind women's luncheon will once again generate buzz about the Symphony in our community and will simply be a lot of fun!

Individual tickets begin at $350

parties of note

Parties of Note

Entering its 8th season, The Phoenix Symphony will continue presenting Parties of Note at private homes throughout the Valley. Parties of Note offers you a chance to experience a small Phoenix Symphony ensemble performance accompanied by a gourmet dinner in a magnificent home or exclusive location.

The 2018/19 Parties of Note event dates will be announced on The Phoenix Symphony website in the fall.

Individual tickets are $200

Funds raised by our unique fundraising events benefit our Education & Community Engagement programs that bring the joy of live orchestral music to more than 125,000 youth and adults throughout our state each year.
